The Data Days of Summer

Have you heard the news? In a couple of weeks, the kids go back to school, college football starts again, and normalcy is once again restored to your schedule.

Even better news? Your facility's "2017 Mid-Year Report" is available to download now for Security Administrators via the QualityNet Secure Portal found at www.qualitynet.org.

Your facility's report shows:

- Data affecting Calendar Year (CY) 2019 payment determinations
 - 2017 Quality Data Code (QDC) rates for claims submitted January 1 – July 5, 2017
- Data affecting CY 2018 payment determinations
 - CY 2016 QDC rates
 - Data submission status as of July 5, 2017 for web-based measures ASC-6, ASC-7, ASC-9, and ASC-10 (CY 2016 data due August 15, 2017)
 - Data submission status for ASC-8 (due May 15, 2017)

In addition to your facility-level data, State and National level data are also provided.

If you've checked out your Mid-Year Report and see that your facility has not submitted all your web-based measure data for the upcoming August 15, 2017 deadline, now what?
