Sometimes you're asked for an opinion when what's really wanted is an affirmation; for example, "You don't really think that shirt goes with those pants, do you?" Well, the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) is asking for your opinion about the Proposed Rule, and they truly want to know what you think.

The Proposed Rule, containing potential program changes, was published in July. (If you follow the link above, you'll find the ASC section on page 33685.) CMS discussed these proposed changes in a webinar over the summer. The slides, recording, and transcripts are available on Quality Reporting Center, and they'll take you step-by-step through the commenting process. You can also go directly to the commenting site to share your opinion.

CMS very much wants your comments. This is your opportunity to impact the measure development process and policy proposals. The deadline for submitting comments is September 11, 2017, and CMS reads each one.
